Your Support Changes Lives!

"Sandy" walked into our office after visiting a clinic for an abortion. The nurse at the clinic told Sandy she was carrying twins. Twins, she thought! I can't go through with this! She left that office and came to see us. She saw her babies on the ultrasound, and filled with hope, she decided she would dedicate herself to raising them. She has enrolled in parenting classes, and she is looking forward to the day when she can hold her children in her arms.

"Becky" walked in just moments after Sandy, fearing the worst news a 15 year old girl can get: you're pregnant. The test results were positive. Her mom and boyfriend committed to supporting her and providing a home to raise the baby. "Becky" now has renewed hope and strength to face her future, and tools and support for the future for her child.
